

4590. Adulteration of fava, or horse beans. U. S. v. 13 Bags of Fava, or Horse Beans. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. Nos. 6895, 6896. I. S. Nos. 2122-1, 2123-1. S. No. E-404.)

On October 4, 1915, the United States attorney for the District of Massachusetts, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel of information for the seizure and condemnation of 13 bags of fava, or horse beans, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Boston, Mass., alleging that the article had been shipped and transported from the State of New York into the State of Massachusetts, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel of information for the reason that the same consisted in part of a filthy, putrid, and decomposed vegetable substance.

On November 2, 1915, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.

CARL VROOMAN, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
