7040. Adulteration of frozen eggs. U. S. * * * v. 9 Cans and 10 Cans * * * of Frozen Eggs. Default decrees of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. Nos. 9575, 9576. I. S. Nos. 15649-r, 15650-r. S. No. E-1205.)

On January 18, 1919, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the Supreme Court of said District, holding a District court, libels for the seizure and condemnation of 9 cases and 10 cases, each containing approximately 40 pounds of frozen eggs, at Washington, D. C., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about September 9, and September 19, 1918, by Stricker Bros., Baltimore, Md., and transported from the State of Maryland into the District of Columbia, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal and vegetable substance.

On April 17, 1919, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.
