7413. Adulteration of eggs. U. S. * * * v. 338 Cases of Shell Eggs. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Good portion ordered released on bond. Unfit portion ordered destroyed. (F. & D. No. 10157. I. S. No. 15310-r. S. No. E-1288.)

On March 8, 1919, the United States attorney for the District of Maryland, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 338 cases of shell eggs, consigned on March 5, 1919, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Baltimore, Md., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Washington Market Co., Washington, D. C., and transported from the District of Columbia into the State of Maryland, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it contained an excessive amount of eggs decomposed in whole or in part.

On March 10, 1919, Emanuel M. Warner, trading as Stricker Bros., Baltimore, Md., having filed an answer to the libel and making claim to the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to said claimant upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that the article should be sorted under the supervision of a representative of this department, the good portion to be released to said claimant to be sold or disposed of for human consumption.

E. D. Ball, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
