On May 26, 1919, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 20 boxes of raisins, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at St. Louis, Mo., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about April 19, 1919, by J. W. Teasdale & Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Indiana, to the Indiana State Prison, Michigan City, Ind., and retransported from the State of Indiana into the State of Missouri, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel in that it consisted in whole or in large part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid vegetable substance.

On April 7, 1920, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
