8273. Adulteration of milk. U. S. * * * v. Welford B. Johnson. Collateral of $25 forfeited. (F. & D. No. 525-c.)

On November 6, 1919, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, acting upon a report by the health officer of said District, filed in the Police Court of the District aforesaid an information against Welford B. Johnson, Midland, Va., alleging the shipment by said defendant, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, on September 22, 1919, from the State of Virginia into the District of Columbia, of a quantity of milk which was adulterated.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in substance in the information for the reason that a certain substance to wit, water, had been mixed with it, thereby reducing and lowering its quality and strength.

On November 6, 1919, the defendant having failed to appear, the $25 collateral that had been deposited by him to insure his appearance was ordered forfeited by the court.
