10290. Adulteration of loganberries. U. S. * * * v. 11 Cases and 19 Cases of Loganberries. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 650-c.)

On January 5, 1922, the United States attorney for the District of Maine, acting upon a report by an official of the Department of Agriculture of Maine, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 30 cases of loganberries, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Bangor, Me., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Bay State Grocery Co., Boston, Mass., on or about November 25, 1921, and transported from the State of Massachusetts into the State of Maine, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled, respectively: "Irvington Brand Logan Berries" and "Special Extra Grade Logan Berries."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed vegetable substance.

On February 7, 1922, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

10291. Misbranding of food sweetener. U. S. * * * v. 10 Pounds of Alleged Food Sweetener. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 13050. I. S. No. 9363-r. S. No. E-2430.)

On or about July 19, 1920, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Florida, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 10 pounds of alleged food sweetener, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Gainesville, Fla., alleging that the article had been shipped by the W. B. Wood Mfg. Co., St. Louis, Mo., June 28, 1920, and transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Florida, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Wood's Special Concentrated Sweetener. 500-500 Soluble in Cold Water. Not sold as a drug. W. B. Wood Mfg. Co., St. Louis, Mo."

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that the above quotation from the label of the cans containing the said article was false and misleading in that the said article was shown by chemical analysis to contain sucrose, sodium bicarbonate, saccharin, and cornstarch.

On August 14, 1920, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
