

11208. Adulteration of walnuts. U. S. v. 179 Bags of Walnuts. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 16910. I. S. No. 72-v. S. No. E-4214.)

On November 10, 1922, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 179 bags of walnuts at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped by the China Mail Steamship Co., San Francisco, Calif., October 22, 1921, and transported from the State of California into the State of New York, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid vegetable substance.

On December 12, 1922, the John Kutsukian Co., Inc., New York, N. Y., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $2,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that the product be repicked, regraded, and disposed of under the supervision of and in a manner approved by this department.

11209. Adulteration and misbranding of canned oysters. U. S. v. 16 Cases of Oysters. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 17087. I. S. No. 8110-v. S. No. W-1269.)

On December 27, 1922, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 16 cases of oysters, remaining in the original unbroken packages at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Dunbar-Dukate Co., New Orleans, La., about June 19, 1922, and transported from the State of Louisiana into the State of California, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended. The article was labeled in part: "Louisiana Cove Oysters Net Contents 5 Ozs. Oyster Meat Dunbar Dukate Company, New Orleans, La."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that water or brine had been mixed and packed with and substituted wholly or in part for the said article.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statement, "Net Contents 5 Ozs. Oyster Meat," was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, and for the further reason that the article was [food] in package form, and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On January 9, 1923, the James Force Co., San Francisco, Calif., claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $100, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that it be made to conform with the provisions of the said act, under the direction and to the satisfaction of this department.
