On November 22, 1921, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Tennessee, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 1,000 cases of salmon at Morristown, Tenn., alleging that the article had been shipped during the month of October, 1921, from Vancouver, British Columbia, by W. R. Beatty & Co., and transported from a foreign country into the State of Tennessee, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "Kay-Square Brand Select Pink Salmon Kenai Packing Co., Seattle, Wash."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in large part, if not wholly, of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

On December 20, 1923, J. F. Goodson & Co. having appeared as claimant for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $5,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that the product be reconditioned by actual recanning, and that the bad portion be destroyed.
