15659. Adulteration of canned cherries. U. S. v. 36 Cases of Cherries. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 22695. I. S. No. 20330-x. S. No. 726.)

On April 3, 1928, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 36 cases of cherries, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped from Sodus, N. Y., on or about February 3, 1928, and transported from the State of New York into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Bespie * * * Packed by R. M. Mesler, Inc., Medina, N. Y. Red Sour Pitted Cold Packed Cherries."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On April 23, 1928, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
