On April 2, 1929, the United States attorney for the District of Porto Rico, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 10 dozen bottles of Jarabe Doble Balsamico Al Guayacol at San Juan, P. R., alleging that the article was in the possession of J. M. Blanco (Inc.), San Juan, P. R., and was being offered for sale and sold in Porto Rico, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act.

Analysis of a sample of the article by this department showed that it consisted essentially of a sirup containing guaiacol and alcohol (8.4 per cent).

It was alleged in the libel that the article was misbranded in that the following statements regarding the curative or therapeutic effects of the said article were false and fraudulent, since it contained no ingredients or combination of ingredients capable of producing the effects claimed: (Carton and bottle label) "For the Treatment of Catarrh, Bronchitis, Bronchorhea, and All Affections of the Respiratory Tract."
