

On October 17, 1930, the said United States attorney filed in the District Court of the United States for the district aforesaid a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 1 tub of butter, remaining in the original unbroken package at Philadelphia, Pa., consigned by the Prairie Farm Cooperative Creamery, Almena, Wis., alleging that the article had been shipped from Almena, Wis., on or about October 14, 1930, and had been transported from the State of Wisconsin into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that a product containing less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat had been substituted for butter, a product which should not contain less than 80 per cent of milk fat.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the article was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On October 29, 1930, the Prairie Farm Cooperative Creamery, Almena, Wis., having appeared as claimant for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of costs and the execution of a bond in the sum of $50, conditioned in part that it should not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to law, and that it be reconditioned under the supervision of this department.
