

district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 285 bottles of witch hazel at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce, on or about March 20, 1934, by the Standard Drug Co., from Newark, N. J., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act as amended. The article was labeled in part: "Standard Witch Hazel."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was misbranded in that the following statements appearing on the label, were statements regarding the curative or therapeutic effects of the article, and were false and fraudulent: "For all external inflammation bathe freely * * * until relieved. For * * * ulcers, old sores, sore nipples, sore eyes, etc. dilute one half with pure water and use in same way."

On June 16, 1934, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be delivered to a charitable institution.

22641. Misbranding of cough syrup. U. S. v. 75 Bottles of Truth Brand White Pine Cough Syrup. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. no. 32800. Sample no. 69884-A.)

Examination of the cough syrup involved in this case showed that it contained no ingredient or combination of ingredients capable of producing certain curative and therapeutic effects claimed in the labeling.

On June 6, 1934, the United States attorney for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 75 bottles of cough syrup at Scranton, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce by the Blackstone Manufacturing Co., from Newark, N. J., into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act as amended. The article was labeled in part: "Truth Brand * * * Blackstone Manufacturing Co., Newark, N. J."

Analysis of a sample of the article by this Department showed that it consisted essentially of chloroform, tar, sugar, and water with a small proportion of inorganic salts.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was misbranded in that the following statements regarding its curative or therapeutic effects were false and fraudulent: (Carton) "Cough * * * For Coughs * * * Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections"; (bottle) "Cough * * * For Coughs * * * Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections. Dose * * * Teaspoonful every two hours until relieved."
