FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

NOTICES OF JUDGMENT UNDER THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT

[Given pursuant to section 4 of the Food and Drugs Act]

24001-24025

[Approved by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., September 16, 1935]

24001. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 46 Bushels and 78 Crates of Apples. Default decrees of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. nos. 35020, 35118. Sample nos. 25005-B, 25013-B.)

Examination of the apples involved in these cases showed the presence of arsenic and lead in amounts that might have rendered them injurious to health.

On October 25 and 29, 1934, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court libels praying seizure and condemnation of 46 bushels and 78 crates of apples at Joliet, Ill., alleging that the article had been transported in interstate commerce on or about October 21 and 22, 1934, by the Kristal Fruit Co., from Glenn, Mich., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. A portion of the article was labeled in part: "Will Hamlin Glenn Mich King."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, in amounts that might have rendered it injurious to health.

On December 17 and 20, 1934, no claimant having appeared, judgments of condemnation were entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

M. L. WILSON, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

24002. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 14 Bushels of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 35075. Sample no. 24892-B.)

Examination of the apples involved in this case showed the presence of arsenic and lead in amounts that might have rendered them injurious to health.

On November 8, 1934, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 14 bushels of apples at Chicago, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about November 4, 1934, by Wm. Hamlin, from Glenn, Mich., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Will Hamlin Glenn, Mich., Greening."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, in amounts that might have rendered it injurious to health.

On December 17, 1934, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

M. L. WILSON, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

24003. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 21 Bushels of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 35083. Sample no. 24883-B.)

Examination of the apples involved in this case showed the presence of arsenic and lead in amounts that might have rendered them injurious to health.

On November 6, 1934, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the
