

April 10, 1935, by F. N. Hicks, Inc., from Winter Garden, Fla., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted wholly or in part of a decomposed vegetable substance, in that citrus fruit damaged by drying had been substituted wholly or in part for edible citrus fruit, which the article purported to be; and in that a valuable constituent, juice, had been wholly or in part extracted.

On May 22, 1935, no claimant appearing, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
