

24998. Adulteration of blueberries. U. S. v. 4½ Crates of Blueberries. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 36219. Sample no. 44500-B.)

This case involved a shipment of blueberries which were infested with maggots.

On July 31, 1935, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of four and one-half crates of blueberries at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about July 30, 1935, by George Grover, from Pemberton, N. J., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On August 17, 1935, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
