

25514. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 67 Bushels of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 36819. Sample nos. 47156-B; 47159-B.)

This case involved a shipment of apples which were contaminated with arsenic and lead.

On September 19, 1935, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 67 bushels of apples at St. Louis, Mo., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about September 17, 1935, by Louis Kaysing, from Beechville, Ill., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous or deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On November 25, 1935, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
