

Hygrade Food Products Corporation, from Wheeling, W. Va., and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Gold Leaf Country Style Roll Butter Schenk Division Hygrade Food Products Corporation, Wheeling, West Virginia."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, putrid, or decomposed animal substance and in that a product containing less than 80 percent of milk fat had been substituted for butter.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the article was represented to be butter which was false and misleading, since it contained less than 80 percent of milk fat.

On January 7, 1936, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
