

27006. Adulteration of pitted dates. U. S. v. 52½ Cases of Pitted Dates. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 38827. Sample no. 81103-C.)

This case involved a shipment of pitted dates that were infested with insects.

On December 17, 1936, the United States attorney for the District of Colorado, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 52½ cases of pitted dates at Denver, Colo., consigned by the W. H. Marvin Co., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about September 22, 1936, from Chicago, Ill., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Marvin Golden Hollowi Dates The W. H. Marvin Co. Urbana, Ohio."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy vegetable substance.

On February 15, 1937, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
