29468. Adulteration and misbranding of dog food. U. S. v. 211 Cases of Dog Food. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. No. 42906. Sample No. 24367-D.)

This product was deficient in protein and contained added water.

On June 10, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 211 cases of dog food at Indianapolis, Ind.; alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about May 2, 1938, by the Banner Packing Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, from Chicago, Ill.; and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Blue Cross Dog Food * * * General Laboratories, Inc., Des Moines, Iowa."

Adulteration was alleged in that a substance deficient in protein and containing added water had been substituted in whole or in part for the article.

Misbranding was alleged in that the following statements in the labeling were false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser when applied to a product consisting of approximately 75 percent water and which contained only 7.74 percent of protein: " * * * it Is everything—it Has everything I need.' This wholesome food is correctly balanced for the feeding of dogs and cats. Contains only red muscle meat from beef and horse—combined with bone, bone marrow, parts of wheat, soya flour, rolled oats, carrots, with salt, potassium iodide, cod liver oil and charcoal added. Guaranteed Analysis Crude Protein (Min.) 12%."

On August 18, 1938, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.
