

Misbranding, Section 403 (a), the label statement, "Contains 25 [or "50"]% Pure Vermont Maple Syrup," was false and misleading as applied to the product, which was an artificially flavored and colored sugar sirup containing an insignificant amount of maple sirup; and, Section 403 (c), the product was an imitation of another food, i.e., "Griddle Cake Syrup Contains 25 [or "50"]% Pure Vermont Maple Syrup," and its label failed to bear, in type of uniform size and prominence, the word "imitation" and, immediately thereafter, the name of the food imitated.

DISPOSITION: February 2, 1945. J. G. Generalis, trading as the J. G. Generalis Co., having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation was entered. On March 3, 1945, upon petition by the claimant, the court ordered the product released under bond for relabeling under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration.

8356. Misbranding of sorghum sirup. U. S. v. 122 Cases and 48 Cases of Sorghum Sirup. Decree of condemnation, with provision for release of the product under bond. (F. D. C. No. 14930. Sample No. 69534-F.)

LIBEL FILED: January 2, 1945, District of New Mexico.

ALLEGED SHIPMENT: Between the approximate dates of December 1, 1943, and February 1, 1944, by R. C. Hyatt, from Sulphur Springs, Tex.

PRODUCT: 170 cases, each containing 6 jars, of sorghum sirup, at Portales, N. Mex. The product was shipped unlabeled. Analysis showed that it was a mixture of sorghum sirup, sugar, and corn sirup.

VIOLATIONS CHARGED: Misbranding, Section 403 (e) (1), the product failed to bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor; Section 403 (e) (2), it failed to bear an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents; and, Section 403 (i) (2), it was fabricated from two or more ingredients, and its label failed to bear the common or usual name of each such ingredient.

DISPOSITION: February 3, 1945. No claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered. The decree provided that the product be released in the event that R. C. Hyatt, Portales, N. Mex, should pay costs and execute a bond, conditioned that the sirup be labeled under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration.
