

NATURE OF CHARGE: Adulteration, Section 402 (a) (3), the product consisted in whole or in part of a filthy substance by reason of the presence of insect-infested cocoa beans, and of a decomposed substance by reason of the presence of moldy cocoa beans. The product was adulterated while held for sale after shipment in interstate commerce.

DISPOSITION: October 7, 1952. The Ambrosia Chocolate Co., Milwaukee, Wis., claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and the court ordered that the product be released under bond for the purpose of salvaging and making it fit for human consumption or, in the alternative, for the purpose of recovering theobromine and other nonedible substances, under the supervision of the Federal Security Agency. Approximately 1,000 pounds of the product were found unfit and were destroyed as a result of the salvaging operations.
